

Betty Manners	Manners	Possibly Betty Constance Asquith née Manners (1889-1962), wife of Hon. Arthur Melland Asquith
Mervyn Herbert	Herbert	The Honourable Mervyn Robert Howard Molyneux Herbert (1882-1929) of Tetton, Kingston St Mary in Somerset, was a career diplomat and a first-class cricket player. As a cricketer, Herbert was a right-handed middle-order batsman. He played for Eton in the 1901 Eton v Harrow cricket match at Lord's. In the same year, he made the first of six appearances in first-class cricket for Nottinghamshire, but from 1903 most of his first-class cricket was for Somerset. Herbert's diplomatic career started when he was appointed as an attaché in the Foreign Office in 1907. He became a third secretary in the Diplomatic Service in 1910 and in 1916 he was further promoted to become a second secretary. Then in 1919 he became a first secretary serving in embassies and delegations in Rome, Lisbon, Madrid and Cairo, and was first secretary in Madrid up to 1922, returning to a Whitehall job in the Foreign Office between 1924 and 1926
Angela Manners	Manners	Possibly Hon. Angela Margaret Manners (1889-1970) - the daughter of John Thomas Manners, 3rd Baron Manners of Foston and Constance Edwina Adeline Hamlyn-Fane.
